Itinerary

Day 1: Tue, Nov 30

Using transportation information provided by MEJDI (shuttle, train, or private taxi), travelers transfer on own from airport to hotel in Jerusalem for check-in. Then meet up for an included dinner at your hotel.

Overnight: St. George Cathedral Guesthouse or Similar, Jerusalem. [D]

Day 2: Wed, Dec 1

On Wednesday, begin early with MEJDI's award-winning "dual narrative" introduction to ancient Jerusalem. Get to know your Jewish Israeli and Palestinian guides as you head over to the nearby Old City of Jerusalem for an overview of its importance to both people groups. Include a visit to the Temple Mount/Haram al-Sharif, with close-up view of the Dome of the Rock and al-Aqsa Mosque; the iconic Western Wall, with a tour the tunnels below; the City of David with thorough exploration of the site with an archaeologist, and a discussion with your guides of the controversies surrounding the site; and with a tour of the Church of the Holy Sepulcher for an overview of Christian communities there and beyond in Jerusalem.

Overnight: St. George Cathedral Guesthouse or Similar, Jerusalem. [B, L, D]

Day 3: Thr, Dec 2

On Thursday, continue with both guides as you discuss the history of Jerusalem's expansion and some of its most pressing issues today. Begin with a sobering visit to Yad Vashem, Israel's Holocaust Memorial. Then visit the neighboring village of Ein Karem for a discussion of its religious significance, as well as a dual narrative conversation on its place in history around the events of 1948.

From there, head along the "Green Line" discussing key events and issues from then to today, including Israeli West Bank settlements, Palestinian refugees, security concerns, and possible paths forward. Close the day by meeting with Rabbi Daniel Roth for a discussion on religion and peace. Following dinner debrief a full and heavy day with your group leaders.

Overnight: St. George Cathedral Guesthouse or Similar, Jerusalem. [B, D]

Day 4: Fri, Dec 3

On Friday, head back on foot to the Old City to meet with a local merchant couple (arranged by group leaders) and to enjoy some free time to explore the Soukh. Then head to the vibrant Jewish marketplace of Machane Yehuda for exploration and lunch on your own. In the afternoon, enjoy a brief break at your hotel before heading out in early evening for a traditional Shabbat meal in the home or homes of local Jewish families.

Overnight: St. George Cathedral Guesthouse or Similar, Jerusalem. [B, D]

Day 5: Sat, Dec 4

Conclude your time in Jerusalem on Saturday with a guided visit to the Israel Museum. See the 3D map of Second Temple Jerusalem, the Shrine of the Book and Dead Sea Scrolls, and more, including an exploration of the regions earliest civilizations. From there, head south to Bethlehem, where you'll be introduced to life in Bethlehem and Palestinian Christians by Rev. Dr. Mitri Raheb. From there, meet up with host families for dinner and overnight with Palestinian families.

Overnight: Homestays in Bethlehem [B, D]

Day 6: Sun, Dec 5

After breakfast with your host family, head to Christmas Lutheran Church in Bethlehem for morning worship and informal conversations over coffee with members of the congregation, or take time to explore Bethlehem's soukh and Nativity Square. Regather for a group lunch and a tour of the Church of the Nativity. Then head out through the Judean desert to the Jordan Valley, and south along the valley to Kibbutz Ein Gedi.

Overnight: Ein Gedi Kibbutz Hotel or Similar [B, L, D]

Day 7: Mon, Dec 6

On Monday, tour Herod's desert fortress, Masada. Discuss its ancient history, as well as its role as a national symbol to many Israelis today. From there, make a stop at the Dead Sea for a float in its mineral rich waters and included simple lunch, and at Qumran, nearby site of the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls. Then head north to Nazareth.

Overnight: Villa Nazareth or Similar. [B, L, D]

Day 8: Tue, Dec 7

On Tuesday, head out to Nazareth's neighboring site of ancient Tziporri / Sepphoris for a short visit with discussion of that cosmopolitan city's emergence at the beginning of the Common Era. Contrast what you see there with common depictions of Galilean life as you continue to the coastal city of Akko/Acre. In Akko, enjoy lunch on own and exploration of the remains of the underground Crusader city, as well as the later "Old City" above it, and today's modern Akko. Include a visit with Mohammed Falili, Director of Akko's Jewish-Arab Community Center as part of your introduction to modern Akko.

Overnight: Villa Nazareth or Similar. [B, D]

Day 9: Wed, Dec 8

In the morning, head northeast to the Golan Heights. Visit the important archaeological site of Tel Dan, and meet for lunch with a member of the Golan's Druze community. From there, head south through the Golan, with narration from your guide, to the "Sea" of Galilee for a tour of the lakeside sites of Capernaum and Migdal.

Overnight: Villa Nazareth or Similar. [B, D]

Day 10: Thr, Dec 9

On Thursday, depart Nazareth to the impressive ruins of Caesarea Maritima for a tour to discuss the city's role in the complex relationship between Herodian Judea and Rome, and time to explore its market area and lunch on own. Finally, travel south along the coast, with narration through the bustling modern city of Tel Aviv and then to its neighboring ancient city of Jaffa. In

MEJDI TOURS

Jaffa, enjoy an introductory tour of Jaffa, including the ancient port, Jewish Yemenite Culture and Art Museum, and nearby Arab and Jewish neighborhoods. Check into your hotel, and then head out on foot to the locally famous Dr. Shakshuka for a taste of North African influence on today's eclectic Jaffa. Bid farewell to your guide, and enjoy a free evening for further exploration on own, or rest.

Overnight Tel Aviv-Jaffa. Ruth Daniel House or Similar. [B, D]

Day 11: Fri, Dec 10

On Friday, one group transfer to Ben Gurion airport is included for those departing prior to the extension in Jordan.

Extension Itinerary

Day 11: Fri, Dec 10

Transfer with the extension group to domestic airport instead of Ben Gurion Airport, and fly approximately one hour to Eilat, in southern Israel. Shuttle to border and cross to Jordan. Meet Jordanian guide, and head to Wadi Rum, with stop en route. At Wadi Rum, enjoy traditional Bedouin tea service and a 2-3 hour guided hike. Depart to Wadi Musa, just under 2 hours from Wadi Rum. If time permits, make a brief stop at Little Petra.

Overnight: Petra Quattro, Grand View, or Similar - Wadi Musa. [D]

Day 12: Sat, Dec 11

Enjoy a full day guided exploration of Petra - a vast, unique city, carved into rock by the Nabateans. After breakfast and check-out, trek through Petra's narrow siq until you reach the iconic Treasury, Al-Khazneh. Later, ascend to the impressive monastery dating to the early 2nd Century CE, and later re-purposed as a Christian chapel. See additional major points of interest along the way. At the end of the day in Petra, depart to Amman.

Overnight: Mena Tyche or Sadeen or Similar, Amman. [B, D]

Day 13: Sun, Dec 12

On Sunday, head to Madaba to view its mosaic map of the Holy Land as conceived by 6th Century Christians. Visit Madaba Archaeological Museum, and as time permits, the Church of the Apostles and Burnt Palace. Then head to Mount Nebo for a remarkable view on a spot marked by pilgrims as the place where Moses looks over the Jordan into Canaan. Descend into the Jordan Valley for a tour of Bethany Beyond the Jordan, marked by early Christians as the setting for Jesus' baptism. Return to hotel for dinner.

Overnight: Mena Tyche or Sadeen or Similar, Amman. [B, D]

Day 14: Mon, Dec 13

On Monday, meet your driver and transfer to Amman's Queen Alia Airport for departure.
